SHORAI Edge Now Offered in Black and White

New colours for home air-conditioning applications with smart control and IoT capabilities

London, February 22, 2023 – For those seeking a stylish, smart air-conditioning unit, the refreshed SHORAI Edge from Toshiba Air Conditioning is now available in either black or white colours. Toshiba Air Conditioning is a part of Carrier Global Corporation (NYSE: CARR), the leading global provider of healthy, safe, sustainable and intelligent building and cold chain solutions.

Providing a harmonious design, the matching (black or white) remote control facilitates a host of advanced features for optimal comfort and energy efficiency. The upgraded SHORAI Edge also comes with a new Wi-Fi adapter fully embedded within the indoor unit as standard.

In combination with the intuitive Toshiba Home AC Control app, users benefit from IoT functions such as energy monitoring with a user-selected display format, as well as smart speaker voice control via Google Home Assistant or Amazon Alexa. Both beautiful and smart, the new black and white SHORAI Edge complements current on-trend interiors.
